Remnant Sale!

BEGINS AND ENDS THIS WEEK

One of the results of a remarkable sale like our clearing sale is Remnants---Remnants of everything imaginable that could possibly accrue in a first-class Dry Goods store.

Now we want to make a clean sweep and a quick one of these hundreds of short lengths, so we have given our counters up to them and priced them low enough to interest anyone who can make use of short lengths.

It's the economical woman's opportunity to make her money do extra good work. Sale begins and ends this week.

For the Woman Who Didn't Call*LAST WEEK

The opportunity is still here to secure dainty bits of China, Cut Glass, Dinnerware, Commode Sets or a nice Lamp, at prices presented by this Pre inventory Sale of ours.

This opportunity you can't afford to let pass. A goodly number have patronized this sale despite the bad weather we have had the greater part of the time.

In city court this morning Paquin said he was guilty of a second offense and paid a fine of $13 with costs of $8.24.

Several persons admired the acrobatic skill displayed by Attorney A. A. Sargent this afternoon. Mr. Sargent got locked out of his office on the second floor of the L. M. Averill building, and with no key at hand the only way to get in was from the outside of the building. So he went into a neighboring office, crawled out the window and then crept along the window ledge to his own window and thence into his own. A false step and--well, here the curtain is drawn.
